

Something Sweet?

Gajar ka Halwa.....£5.45
Grated carrots cooked and sweetened in condensed milk and served with panacotta ice-cream. A classic!

Gulab Jamun..... £5.45
Soft milk dumplings, deep fried and then soaked in a rose-scented sugar syrup.
Served with panacotta ice-cream
(a must-try if you have a sweet tooth!)

Kulfi.....£3.95
Traditional Indian ice-cream. Deliciously rich and creamy, with pistachio chunks.

Mango Passion.....£4.95
Mango and passionfruit sorbet served with fresh strawberries.

Chocolia ..... £5.95
Warm and gooey chocolate brownie served with panacotta ice-cream.

Dessert Platter ..... £9.95
Gajar ka Halwa, Chocolate Brownie, Gulab Jamun, and panacotta ice-cream (because you're worth it).

Coffee

Single Espresso ..... £1.95
Double Espresso .... £2.95
Americano ..... £2.45
Cappuccino ..... £3.45
Latte ..... £3.45

5% of every item sold from our sweets section is donated to John Bosco Boarding House and St Mary's School in India.
Please ask a member of our team for more details or visit: www.stmarytrust.org

Chai £2.45

The noble chaiwalas of India are an integral part of the country's street-food culture. As you walk past the rustic chai stands, know that many of these are family businesses have been spanning generations. At Indico, we serve the classic Badshahi Chai, which is served in a much larger glass and with a higher proportion of milk. An ode to the nation and its hardworking locals.